Report fake news:

Introduction:

Thanks to the “Democratic and Inclusive School Culture in Operation (DISCO) European Project” about Fake News, directed by “Centro Educazione Multimedia, Università di Pavia, Dipartimento di Scienze Politiche e Sociali”, we had the opportunity to analyze a piece of news suspected to be false.

Our class 4^{Fl} was divided into small groups. Our group is formed by Francesca Cancelli, Ylenia Inzaghi, Alessia Maria Preti and Vittoria Maria Verenini. Together we considered a piece of social- political news found in a online doubtful newspaper. The scoop we decided to work on is called: “Gli Usa escono dall’Unesco, Trump: «E’ anti israeliana»”. We led some researches and we can affirm that we got to a result.

Findings:

Firstly, we examined some reliable online newspapers, considered trustworthy, due to the fact that we have to discover if this broadcast is true or false.

This piece of news that we obtained from DirettaNews24 on the 12th October 2017 states that: "The United States has withdrawn from UNESCO." However, we found that other sites claim otherwise.

To explain this theory we take into consideration the website of ilgiornale.it which, through an article dated 2 January 2019, states that the USA had begun the procedures to leave UNESCO in 2017 but that the official confirmation of the exit would take place early months of 2019.

The article in fact states: "With the arrival of 2019 the process for the withdrawal of the two countries, started in October 2017, was formally concluded." Similarly to what was claimed by the aforementioned newspaper, also Sky Tg 24 communicates the same news. Furthermore, we discovered through the Twitter profile of US President Donald Trump that the stop of US and Israeli funding did not happen. Here are the words of Trump: "...peace treaty with Israel. We have taken Jerusalem, the toughest part of the negotiation, the table, but Israel, for that, would have had to pay more. But with the Palestinians talk peace more, why should we make any future massive payments to them?" 2 January 2018.

Subsequently, reading the newspaper page carefully, we found several grammatical and spelling errors, for example in the sentence: 'durerà fino a quando un dei candidati non avrà ottenuto la maggioranza.' In addition, through a search on Google images we realized that the photo of Donald Trump had already been used previously in other online newspapers, to name one, appeared in a Romanian and an English newspaper. In light of all this we can say that the news is false.

Before reaching this conclusion, however, we looked for the alleged false news on various sites, including Ansa, Ilmessaggero.it, Ilfattoquotidiano.it and also the American site Associated Press.org, being misled as they claimed about the same statements to favor of Direttanews24, which appears to be the source of the news.

Conclusion:

To conclude, we reaffirm that the news we analyzed is not true. In fact, this was stated in the news, but not in 2017, but in 2019.

In this regard we define the content of the impostor news, through the use of the persuasive mechanism of polarization.

In our view the false news was created with the aim of increasing the tension between the US and Palestine. The possible consequences of the spread of this news may have created discussion among readers discrediting the reputation of the United States.
